This Hits Different – The Power of Language

Please review the guidelines carefully as your submission may be rejected if incomplete.

OSSTF/FEESO invites secondary student writers and artists to submit creative work exploring 2024's Student Achievement Awards theme: This Hits Different – The Power of Language

Hey, IYKYK – Language is evolving. Reading, writing, and speaking permeate almost every moment in our lives, and the language we use is our key form of expression and communication. The language of youth influences their cultural identities as well as influencing attitudes and behaviour. Language changes with almost every generation and reflects the time. If you're too BASIC to LYBL and use the most ON FLEEK slang, DON'T TRIP. IRL everyone is changing how they communicate with each other and it's AIGHT.

Get inspired by this year's theme of: This Hits Different – The Power of Language and create a piece of writing or work of art that explores the theme. (This could include, but is not limited to, a poem, short story, essay, lyrics, painting, drawing, sculpture etc.) We even have a category for digital productions such as videos and music. Share your creative vision with the world!

A student, with the support of an OSSTF/FEESO member who has worked directly with the student, will submit an original piece of writing, visual art or digital media based on this year's theme, This Hits Different – The Power of Language. The eight provincial winners will receive a cash award of $1,000.00 and will be invited to the Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation annual general meeting in Toronto to receive their award.

The Student Achievement Awards celebrate the work of OSSTF/FEESO members (teachers and education workers) and their students. Find out which of the eight categories you will enter at: www.ossf.on.ca/studentachievementawards.

IMPORTANT:

Entry procedures—see the infographic! Students and supporting staff do not submit work directly to the OSSTF/FEESO Provincial Office. Entries must first be judged at the school level, then be sent to the District OSSTF/FEESO office for judging. Winning District entries will then be sent, by District office personnel, to the Provincial Office of OSSTF/FEESO for final judging.

1. Students

- Submit an entry, as well as the appropriate entry form, to your sponsoring teacher or education worker in one of the divisions and categories listed. Make sure you include your supporting staff Member endorsement letter.

2. Supporting OSSTF/FEESO Member

- Support students with their submission, select one entry per category, and submit it to your school/worksite OSSTF/FEESO staff representative, branch president, or school Student Achievement Awards coordinator. Please write a detailed account of your role to submit with student work.

3. Sponsoring school

- Select one entry per category to submit to your LOCAL OSSTF/FEESO District office no later than November 15, 2023.

4. OSSTF/FEESO District office

- Select a local District winner in each category and forward the winning entries to the OSSTF/FEESO Provincial Office no later than December 8, 2023. Please do not send an incomplete entry or entry without supporting staff Member letter to Provincial Office.

Once submitted to the Provincial Office, District winners will be judged at a regional level with the possibility to move on to be judged at the provincial level.

Divisions and categories

Select Division A or B. On the entry form, check off one box only in the correct category. Please see specific criteria for each division and category. Adult learners are encouraged to participate at the level at which they are studying or can enter the non-credit category. Special education students can either enter at the level which they are studying or enter the non-credit category.

Division A - Prose and Poetry

There are four distinct categories in the Prose and Poetry Division:

- Category 1: Prose and Poetry, English Intermediate, 9–10
- Category 2: Prose and Poetry, English Senior, 11–12
- Category 3: Prose and Poetry, French, 9–12
- Category 4: Prose and Poetry, Non-Credit, 9–12 (Please see the entry form for additional information.)

Prose and Poetry Division submission guidelines

Please note that prose and poetry compete against each other in the judging. All entries must be reflective of this year's theme. To be eligible for judging, entries must:

Preferably word-processed.

Have a length of 750 words or less.

Include an original title on the entry form, not just the name of the contest.

Include a detailed written or recorded description of the role of the OSSTF/FEESO sponsoring staff Member (teacher or education worker) played in the development of your entry (this must be written by your supporting staff member – max 125 words).

Note: Submission will not be accepted if the role of staff Member is not included.

Ensure that you have read the guidelines; your entry form will be DISQUALIFIED if not complete and attached to your submission.

Email entries are not accepted.

Each school may submit only one entry per category for a total of four entries in the Prose and Poetry Division.
